THE HOME GOLD CURE.

ingenious Treatment by Which spite of Themselves.

No Weakening of Serves. A Pleasant and Posmy Cure for the Liquor flabit.

rally known and un-Drunkenness is a disweakness. A body filled and nerves completely eriodical or constant use

RE YOUR HUSBANDS!! CURE YOUR FATHific for this discuse specific for this disease so skillfully devised and it is thoroughly soluble to the taste, so that it in a cup of tea or coffee knowledge of the person Thousands of Drunkards edge in coffee or tea, to day that they disconof their own free will. and misleading "improverive out the disease for once at the extremely low sold at the extremely low pe Dollar, thus placing with feverybody a treatment more han others costing $25 to $50, tions accompany each packing advice by skilled physical requested without extra Sent prepaid to any part of on receipt of One Dollar, ent E 206 EDWIN B. GILES NY 2320 and 2332 Market COMPANY, 2330 and 2332 Market pilaselphia. correspondence strictly confiden-

Reefers

ats for little men.

YOUNG & KNOWLTON, Clothiers.

For Cash on Delivery

J. A. Pullen's.

at

Shreded Wheat, Best Vinegar, gal.,

Best Coffee, lb., Tripe, keg, Bread Flour, sack, St. Louis Flour, 15 sack,

All goods at same low prices must have cash on delivery, and these are prices for goods at store. Brattleboro People Receiving the Full Benefit.

E. H. DAVENPORT, West Brattleboro, Vt. Brattleboro, Vt.

LOCAL

BOUQUET THROWING.

AS ONE ACTOR

LEAVES THE BOARDS AND ANOTHER COMES ON

(From the Brattleboro Phoenix.) Mr Ullery brings ripe experience to a business which is no means new to him of neutralizing and his puison, and destroying for intoxicants. Sufnow cure themselves at at publicity or loss of time by this wonderful of D CURE" which has all after many years of close eathern of inebriates. The acarding to directions of ful discovery is positively to cure the most obstinate for how hard a drinker. a business which is no means new to or how hard a drinker. on his present venture. He has the thousands of Drunkards success, and The Phoenix takes industrious and upright pleasure in introducing him to the men of the craft in Verment as one to the manner bern and entitled to the right hard of fellowship.

Seems to Disarm an If.

(From the Wilmington Times.) Mr Ullery brings to his new ver ture an experience of 27 years in the newspaper and printing business and plenty of capital with which to develop the business. Editor Chas H Thousands of the price develop the business. Enter themselves with this price and as many more have and made temperate men be "CUKE" administered triends and relatives with the distinction of being the strongest artitivial writer in the state. If Editor y that they discon-their own free will.

Do not be deluded man as he was journalist, the Reformer would have been without a peer.

ing, Democratic in politics, has been an influence on the side of good government and an effectual brake on continue the independent policy of the paper, and to improve it mechanically. Here's hoping, and may the Reformer's influence never grow less.

How It Has Grown.

(From the Barre Times.)

Mr Davetport in his valedictory announces that he retires from the editorial as well as the business management of the paper which is a carse for sincere regret for he has come to be recognized as the editorial witer in the state. Mr Davenport streeted has grown is management it has grown (from a issue of four pages weekly for sixteen and it has hecome one of the leading business means from an issue of four pages weekly for sixteen and it has hecome one of the leading business means (From the Burlington News.)

Mr Davenport has make the Reformer in the Tildens of the Previount and intential papers in Vermont. Mr Ullery is one of the leading business means success of what he undertakes.

(From the Burlington News.)

Mr Davenport has make the Reformer at Savington business means the saving some of the leading business means of the paper which is a cause for proverful and influential papers in Vermont. Mr Ullery is one of the leading business means of southern vertical the state, and ke will be greatly missed from the ranks of the newspaper (National Papers in Vermont and laways makes a success of what he undertakes.

(From the Burlington News.)

Mr Davenport has make the Reformer as farce in its community and in the state, and he will be greatly missed from the ranks of the newspaper (National Papers in Vermont and laways makes a success of what he undertakes.

(From the Burlington News.)

Mr Davenport has make the Reformer as farce in its community and in the state, and he will be greatly missed from the ranks of the newspaper (National Papers in Vermont of the paper which is a care for sincere regret for he has cause for the residue of the four the paper which is a cause for sincere re

Overcoats are still in
We also have the long ittle men.

er a force in its community and in the state, and he will be greatly missed from the ranks of the newspaper frateroity. Regrets and good wisbes will follow him in his retirement. And to the 'new face at the door,' Mr Davenport's genial, enterprising and unitodate gardeness we wish J G Ullery, who was advertising manager of the Transcript several years ago, has purchased the Reformer, a weekly newspaper published in Brattleboro. The Reformer has been in existence 25 years and has a large circulation in Vermont.

Mr Ullery at the time the Holyoke Democrat went under, had made all in the second property of the Transcript several years ago, has purchased the Reformer, a weekly newspaper published in Brattleboro. The Reformer has been in existence 25 years and has a large circulation in Vermont.

Mr Ullery at the time the Holyoke Democrat went under, had made all in the second property of the Transcript several years ago, has purchased the Reformer, a weekly newspaper published in Brattleboro. The Reformer has been in existence 25 years and has a large circulation in Vermont.

Brer Davenport of the Reformer, one of the leading Democratic papers in the state, is an able writer and will be much missed by the fraternity.

BROUGHT TO LIGHT.

There have been many cases like the following in Brattleboro. Everyone relates the experience of people we know. These plain, straight forward statements will do much toward relieving the suffering of thousands. Such testimony will be read with interest by many people. Wrs E R Whitney, professional nurse, living at 2 Church street, says: "I had too years marked symptoms of kidney to years marked symptoms of kidney to years marked symptoms of standing too long sugravated it. During such attacks and hips. Any over exertion such as overwork or standing too long augravated it. During such attacks and hips. Any over exertion such as overwork or standing too long augravated it. During such attacks are the formiture were badly daming the several well-known medicines but they dim to little good and willing to try anything that might check the trouble when I saw Doan's kidney Pills so well recommended I was induced to go to a drug store and get a box. They did meading store an

WHY is a New England House the largest grinders of pure stards and Spices in the world?

CHESHIRE COUNTY, N. H.

HINSDALE.

Levi Streeter, Hinsdale's oldest citizen, celebroted his 98th birthday at the home

tendent of the Robertson Bros, paper mill at Ashuelot, has accepted a rosition with the Coy Paper Co., at West family.

40 a weekly newspaper published in Brattleboro. The Reformer bas been in existence 25 years and has a large circulation in Vermont.

12 Mr Ullery at the time the Holyoke Democrat went under, had made all plans to start a morning daily in the center of the freight train No experience in newspaper work, particularly in the business end, but for some reason or other the two main tracks, blocking the flat, particularly in the business end, which will prove valuable to him in the ownership of the Reformer.

150 Brer Daven.

161 Brattleboro, The Reformer bas been in expaper work, and butter, place the fitchburg division of the Boston & Hopped parsley. Break into each moulds an excluding the side to keep out air bubbles. Sprinkle the top with salt and butter, place the fitchburg division of the Boston & Maine railroad at Erving Sunday at Side to keep out air bubbles. Sprinkle the top with salt and butter, place the fitchburg division of the Boston & Maine railroad at Erving Sunday at Side to keep out air bubbles. Sprinkle the top with salt and butter, place the fitchburg division of the feepth train No 233 west bound, with about 510 cars, and two flat cars wers throw at right angles across the throw at right angles across the two main tracks, blocking the flat, bound track for about four hours. This is an excellent two flats were loaded with.

162 Brer Daven.

163 Brer Daven.

SOME LUNCHEON DISHES. By Mrs. Barbara Sadler.

When you are in doubt as to the best luncheon and desire a pointer, look over the following recipes and there should be something that will

They are all good and not difficult to

They are all good and not diment to prepare.

Sweethreads a la Messina.

Prepare the sweethreads and cook them in boiling saited water with a tablespoonful of vinegar for twenty minutes. Plunge into cold water, remove the membranes, season with sait and pepper and squeeze a little orange juice over them. Rub over with soit butter, dredge with flour and bake half an hour. Baste with hot water and numbers, and serve with Messina sauce made as follows: Cream one-half capful of butter, add the unbroken yolks of two eggs, one saitspoonful of sait, one-half as much pepper, two tablespoonfuls of forange luice and a half cupful of hot or grange luice and a half cupful of hot water and stir until it thickens.

Prame Blane Mange.

Wash three pounds of prunes thoroughly and let them soak over night in two or three quarts of water. Simmer them in the same water until soft, Mix together six onnees of cornstarch, twelve together six onnees of cornstarch, Levi Streeter, Hinsdale's oldest citizen.

Davesport had been as good a business man as he was journalist, the Reformer would have been without a peer.

For a Quarter of a Century.

(From the Ludlow Tribune.)

With the issue of Tuesday the Brattleboro Reformer passed from the control of O H Davenport into that of Ullery & Co., its recent purchaser. The Tribune regrets the loss to Vermont newspaperdom which will result from the absence of the independent edutorial utterances from Mr Davenport's peo. For a quarter of a century the Reformer under his piloting, Democratic in politics, has been ing, Democratic in politics, has been in the street place in the latter place.

S B Moore, for some years supering tendent of the Robertson Bros, paper tendent of the Robertson Bros frateroity. Regrets and good wishes will follow him in his retirement. And to the "new face at the door," Mr Davenport's gerial, enterprising and up-to-date successor we wish a long and prospersus career.

Mushrooms and Rechamel Sauce.

(From the Springfield, Mass, Republican.)

It is understood that Mr Davenport has the option of an editorial position on a city paper but will continue for a short time on the Reformer so that Mr Ullery can make necessary arrangements and he can close up his own business affairs. Mr Davenport was the founder of the Reformer, 25 years ago, and his departure will be a loss to Brattelboro and the journalistic profession of the state.

(From the Holyoke Evening Telegram.)

J G Ullery, who was advertising manager of the Transcript several

J G Ullery, who was advertising manager of the Transcript several

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Great Household the properties of this remedy. Its pleasant taste and the or close of this remedy. Its pleasant taste and promove the sections, because and remove the sections. The obsting and leading properties of this selects that the option of an elitorial position on a city paper but will continue for a short time on the Reformer so that Mr Ullery can make necessary arrangements and he can close up his options of an elitorial position of a short time on the Reformer so that Mr Ullery can make necessary arrangements and he can close up his options of an elitorial position of the state of the Reformer, 25 years ago, and his departure will be a loss of the state of the state of the Reformer, 25 years ago, and his departure will be a loss of the state of the Reformer, 25 years ago, and his departure will be a loss of the state of the Reformer, 25 years ago, and his departure will be a loss of the state of the Reformer, 25 years ago, and his departure will be a loss of the state of the Reformer, 25 years ago, and his departure will be a loss of the state of the Reformer, 25 years ago, and his departure will be a loss of the state of the Reformer, 25 years ago, and his departure will be in the center of the freight train No 233 west bound, with about 540 cars. Three box cars and two flat cars were thrown at right angles across the two main tracks, blocking the flat, bound tracks, blocking the flat, blocking th

CARROT AND LENTIL SOUP. CARROT AND LENTIL SOUP.

Procure four carrots, two sliced onions, one cut lettuce and chervil, two ounces of butter, two pints of lentils, the crumbs of two French roils, half a teacupful of rice and four quarts of stock. Put the vegetables with the butter in the stewpan and simmer five minutes. Then add the lentils, which should have been snaked all night, and one pint of stock and stew gently for half an hour. Put in the remainder of the stock, let boil another hour, add the crumbs and when well soaked rub all through a pures sieve. Have ready the boiled rice, pour the soup over it and serve.

great deal of good. I was ever so much better and as far as the pain across my better and as far as a far as the pain across my better and as far as a far as the pain across my better and as far as a far

BRAISED CALFS LIVER.
Scald and remove as much of the skin
of the liver as possible and pin thin slices or salt perk or bacon over the rounded side by means of small wooden skewers. Slice one onton and fry it in salt perk fat, put it with the liver into a deep granite pan, cover with boiling water, add one teaspoonful of salt, one saltspeonful of peoper, four whole cloves and one teaspoonful of whole thyme or marjoram. Place the pan in a moderate oven, cover closely and cook

BRAISED CALF'S LIVER.

of butter over it and set in the over to bake for thirty minutes. Any kind of fish can be used this way.

ish can be used this way.

CHOCOLATE SOUFFLE.

Melt two squares of chocolate with one-third cupful of sugar, by placing them over hot water, and gradually add one pint of milk. When scalded, stir and cook in it the yolks of three eggs beaten and mixed with one-third cupful of sugar. When the mixture coats the spoon add two teaspoonfuls of vanilla extract and one tablespoonful of granulated gelatine softened in one-fourth cupful of water. Then strain in the whites of the eggs beaten stiff. After folding in the eggs thoroughly, turn the mixture into a chilled mould, and when cold and set, serve with whipped cream sweetened and flavored.

EMERGENCY ASPIC JELLY.

Put over the tire one-fourth cupful each of onion and carrot sauted in two tablespoonfuls of butter, two stalks of celery, a buy leaf, half a dozen peppercores and two or three cloves with one quart of water. Add three tenspoonfuls of beef extract dissolved in two cupfuls of boiling water, simmer for half an hour, then put in one box of golatine softened in one cupful of cold water, any desired flavoring, and the slightly beaten white and crushed shell of one egg. Bring slowly to the boiling point, simmer five minutes, let stand in a hot place ten manutes, then skim and strain through two thickinegges of choice cloth. EMERGENCY ASPIC JELLY. through two thicknesses of cheese cloth

Line a buttered month with bolto-mearoni and cost one-fourth cupful o-bread crumles with three-fourths cupful bread crumbs with three-fourths cupf of milk. To the crumb mixture add to tablespoonfuls of batter, a cup of cal chicken chapped has, two tablespoonful of chapped ham, one tablespoonful of chapped ham, one tablespoonful of included preen pepper, two well heatin eggs and salt, pepper and only indee to inste. Furn this into the month alone in a car, water and land with a few gratings of horseradish at a terspoonful of lemon juice and col

A DELICIOUS BEEF DISH.

Take a square piece of beef, three to five pounds, rub it over with saiad oil, and let it remain over night in a liquor composed of equal parts of vinegar and water, salt, pepper, a bay leaf, an onion and a bouquet of herbs such as sweet marjoram, basil, parsley, a sprig of thyme and a blade of mace. Stick the ment with a few cloves and bake it in the liquor for two hours.

FRICASSEE OF SWEETBREADS. FRICASSEE OF SWEETBREADS. Parboil ten minutes, remove the fat and membrane, dredge with flour and fry, until quite brown, in butter with a mineed onion. Add to the butter one cupful of veal stock and two tablespoonfuls of mushroom cutsup or half a cap of stowed tomatoes and one tablespoonful of chopped parsley. Senson to taste with salt and pepper, cover and stow slowly for half an hour. Strain the gravy and pour it over the sweetbreads.

GERMAN POTATOES. To eight medium-sized potatoes allow three ounces of butter, two tablespoon-fuls of flour, one-half pint of broth and two tablespoonfuls of vinegar. Put the butter and flour in a stewpan, stir over the fire until the butter is of a nice brown color and add the broth and vinegar. Peel and cut the potatoes into long, thin slices, lay them in the gravy and let them simmer gently until tender, which will take from ten to fifteen min-nutes. Serve very het with a leaf of any of the flavoring vegetables.

CLAM FRITTERS. Twenty-five clams, dried well with a towel. One plut of flour, one small tenspoonful of baking powder, two well beaten eggs, one-half plut of milk, nearly as nowh clam liquor. Beat until smooth, then stir in the clams. Fry by dropping speonfuls into hot land. The clams can be chopped if preferred. clams can be chopped if preferred.

BUTTERED LOBSTER.

Remove the meat from a two-pound lobster and chop it reasonably fine. Heat an omelet pan, put in one table-spoonful of butter and when it is melted add the lobster. Season with saft and cayenne pepper and a slight grating of nutmer. Serve as soon as the lobster is heated.

Valley Fair.

Wednesday & Thursday, Sept. 25 & 26.

$5,000.00 in Premiums.

$2,800.00 in Purses for Trotting and Pacing.

An exhibit from W. Seward 5 Webb's Shelburne Farms of 36 Hackneys, including winners at the New York Horse $

Prize - winning Herds of Cattle from the leading New England Pairs.

Every Department Well Filled.

Coaching Parade,

Thursday Morning, at 10 o'clock, with new and novel features, including a display of decorated automobiles.

Good Races Daily 3

FREE VAUDEVILLE

Both days, given by a better company of artists than ever before.

Don't miss New England's Best Fair.

6. W. HOOKER,

J J. ESTEY,

C. L. STICKNEY. Secretary.

GREENE'S

Absolutely the largest Prescription Drug Store in the State.

ARTHUR H. H. LEWIS, D. V. S. Veterinary Surgeon.

Graduate Western Veterinary College, Kansas Chy, Mo. Surgery in all its Branch

Office at C. S. STOCKWELL'S STABLE. 23 Mr. Rear Crashy Block.

BAILEY'S REAL ESTATE AGENCY Sells Everything. Address

F. J. BAILEY. Ryther Block, Brattleboro, Vt.